A First-class Performance.

Among the acts to be seen at the opera house the first three days of this week is the "Four Henrys," billed as international dancers and acrobats. The term "international dancers" is not a press agent's dream, but is a real fact, as this family has danced all over the world. They arrived in this country last August and have appeared in all the large cities in the West, including San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Vancouver, Denver, etc., appearing on the same bill with Caruso, the great Italian tenor, at the Auditorium, Chicago, the largest theatre in the country. This act was somewhat handicapped last night. Being Germans and unable to speak English, it was extra hard to rehearse yesterday. This morning another rehearsal was had with an interpreter present, and the act went nicely. The other acts on the bill are both extra good, including the Vannersons, probably the best act ever seen here, and Con Conway, a singing and talking comedian, who gives a clever satire on Jimmy Valentine. This bill is so good that manager Hoban has decided to give a matinee on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Three reels of pictures are shown at every performance.
